

COURSE TITLE: 'GREEN BOOK' 2006 UPDATES

Course Purpose: This course is designed to provide the participants with knowledge of the significant changes in the 2006 Green Book.

To provide basic skills to use and apply the knowledge to on the job situations

Course Duration: 0.5 Day

Pre-requisites: Familiarity with 1999 Green Book Preferably.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of new Definitions & Clauses from the Code of Practice on Electrical Safety for the Distribution Businesses in the VESI (Green Book 2006).
2. Demonstrate knowledge of the layout changes, including the principles and underpinning Electrical Safety Procedures from the Code of Practice on Electrical Safety for the Distribution Businesses in the VESI (Green Book 2006).
3. Demonstrate the ability to locate and interpret relevant new information from the Code of Practice on Electrical Safety for the Distribution Businesses in the VESI (Green Book 2006).

Summary of Content:

1. Introduction.
2. Reasons for change.
3. New Definitions & Principles
4. Structural changes.
5. The Significant changes.
6. Assessment & Feedback

Delivery:

(Presentation Format)

Delivery will consist of:

- Training Room Presentations using Power Point to deal with the acquisition of knowledge and thinking skills.
- Hands on, Practical skills required to use the '2006 Green Book'.

Competency Assessment:

Assessment for this module will consist of:

- Written skills Assessment will be required to demonstrate knowledge of selected Definitions & Clauses of the Code of Practice on Electrical Safety for Distribution Businesses (2006 Green Book).